

THE ULTIMATE POP/ROCK FAKE BOOK

COMPILED BY JOEL WHITBURN

WHAT IS A FAKE BOOK? When a musician is asked to play a song he's never played before, he "fakes" it. One of the most valuable possessions any musician can have is a fake book which contains the melodies, lyrics and chords for hundreds and hundreds of songs. With the access to the melody, lyrics and chords, the musician can improvise his own arrangement of a song.

Three special listings provide the "ultimate" in handy references and can be found on the following pages:

► ALPHABETICAL LISTING — page 4

All songs are listed alphabetically with the page number on which each song can be found. This listing includes the peak position reached by each song on the Billboard Hot 100 Charts, the year in which the record charted, and the artist who recorded the song. If there was more than one recording of a song to reach the top 20 chart position, all versions are listed.

► ARTIST INDEX — page 14

An alphabetical listing of all of the recording artists who performed the songs in this book.

► DECADE LISTING — page 20

A chronological listing of all of the songs in this book, by decade — '50s, '60s, '70s, and '80s.

JOEL WHITBURN

THE COLLECTOR'S COLLECTOR

What started as a casual hobby for Joel Whitburn back before the birth of rock and roll has flourished into the most successful business of its kind anywhere in the world.

Record Research Inc. had its real roots in the 45 r.p.m. records Whitburn began collecting in the early 1950's. By the mid-1960's, this ever-expanding collection had grown considerably in size and scope, prompting Whitburn to begin keeping tabs on his records by categorizing each one according to the highest it had reached on Billboard's "Hot 100."

In 1970, at the urging of a disc jockey friend who realized both the importance and the usefulness of this research, Whitburn published the basic chart information he had gathered in a slim volume titled simply Record Research.

Today, Whitburn's Record Research books and supplements can be found on record collectors' bookshelves, radio station reference racks and in many artists' private libraries the world over, providing essential statistics and data on Billboard's pop singles, pop albums, country, black, adult contemporary and other major charts.

Widely recognized as the foremost authority on charted music, Whitburn, assisted by his staff of fulltime researchers, supplies chart information to Casey Kasem, Dick Clark, Don Imus, Dr. Demento, and other prominent disc jockeys and music show hosts nationwide.

Whitburn's personal pop record collection — perhaps the largest in the world — currently includes all of the 18,000 pop singles to ever appear on the "Hot 100," as well as the more than 14,000 LPs that made it to Billboard's pop album charts. These, along with the balance of Whitburn's collection — over 100,000 singles and LPs in all — are housed in an environmentally controlled, underground vault adjacent to the Record Research office in Whitburn's Menomonee Falls, Wisconsin home.

INTRODUCTION

Welcome to a wonderful world of musical memories — tunes that will vividly recall fond memories as only a song can. The titles in this book are all genuine certified block-busters from the rock era — a 32 year chronology of many of America's greatest hits.

Every song included herein hit the top of our nation's pop record charts beginning with the first major successful rock and roll hits in early 1955, right on through some of the top hits from the summer of 1986. If you're a music fan of this era it will indeed be surprising if you do not recognize each of these song titles.

One of the most important factors used in determining which songs to include in this monumental tribute to pop/rock is the peak position that a record attained during its stay on the national chart listings. Each song achieved a final peak chart position from #1 to #20, with the majority peaking in the top 5. This insures that each of these titles are truly classic hits — songs that remain classics today and are just as easily played and sung now as when they were burning up America's top 20 charts.

All chart positions are taken from America's premier chart keeper — Billboard magazine. Billboard has been keeping tabs on our nation's best selling and most played songs since 1913. I have personally made a career by researching the Billboard charts and publishing books based on the data as compiled from their weekly surveys. Their charts, more than any other, are indeed the best reflection of a song's popularity.

As a man with a real love and passion for the great songs and artists who've meant so much to our culture, and as a weekend guitar player, I know that it won't be long before I wear out my first copy of this treasured tome. It's my hope that all fans of the pop/rock era will now share with me in enjoying each of these great and legendary tunes.

Additional Lyrics

3. Old Hick'ry said we'd take 'em by surprise if we didn't
Fire a musket till we looked 'em in the eyes.
We held our fire till we see'd their faces well.
Then we opened up our squirrel guns and really gave 'em hell.

Chorus

4. We fired our cannon till the barrel melted down.
So we grabbed an alligator and fought another round.
We filled his head with cannon balls and powdered his behind.
And we touched the powder off, the 'gator lost his mind.

Recitation

Cause you know I rode a freight train north to Detroit City.
And after all these years I find I've just been wasting my time,
So I just think I'll take my foolish pride and put it on the south-bound freight and ride
And go on back to the loved ones, the ones that I left waiting so far behind,
I wanna go home, I wanna go home; Oh, how I wanna go home.

VERSES

3. Blacker than night were the eyes of Felina
Wicked and evil while casting a spell.
4. My love was deep for this Mexican maiden
I was in love but in vain I could tell.
TO INTERLUDE A...
5. I challenged his right for the love of this maiden
Down went his hand for the gun that he wore.
6. My challenge was answered in less than a heart - beat,
The handsome young stranger lay dead on the floor.
7. Just for a moment I stood there in silence,
Shocked by the foul evil deed I had done.
8. Many thoughts raced through my mind as I stood there,
I had but one chance and that was to run.
TO INTERLUDE B...
9. I could from the West Texas town of El Paso.
Out to the badlands of New Mexico.

10. Back in El Paso my life would be worthless,
Ev'rything's gone, in life nothing is left.
11. It's been so long since I've seen the young maiden,
My love is stronger than my fear of death.
12. (Instrumental)
INTERLUDE C as follows:
I saddled up and away I did go,
Riding alone in the dark,
Maybe tomorrow a bullet will find me,
Tonight nothing's worse than this pain in my heart.
13. And at last here I am on the hill overlooking El Paso,
I can see Rosa's cantina below.
14. My love is strong and it pushes me onward,
Down off the hill to Felina I go.
15. Off to my right I see five mounted cowboys,
Off to my left ride a dozen or more.

16. Shouting and shooting I can't let them catch me,
I have to make it to Rosa's back door.

INTERLUDE D as follows:

- Something is dreadfully wrong for I feel
A deep burning pain in my side.
Though I am trying to stay in the saddle,
I'm getting weary unable to ride.
17. But my love for Felina is strong and I rise where I've fallen
Though I am weary I can't stop to rest.
18. I see the white puff of smoke from the rifle,
I feel the bullet go deep in my chest.
19. From out of nowhere Felina has found me,
Kissing my cheek as she kneels by my side.
20. Cradled by two loving arms that I'll die for,
One little kiss, then Felina good-bye. (END)

Down the lane I walk with my sweet Mary, hair of gold and lips like cherries:
It's good to touch the green green grass of home.
3. Then I awake and look around me at the grey walls that surround me,
And I realize that I was only dreaming,
For there's a guard and there's a sad old Padre, arm in arm we'll walk at daybreak,
Again I'll touch the green green grass of home.

CHORUS:
Yes, they'll all come to see me in the shade of that old oak tree,
As they lay me 'neath the green green grass of home.

I want to tell you all a sto - ry 'bout a Har - per Val - ley wid - ow'd wife who had a teen - age daugh - ter who at - tend - ed Har - per Val - ley Jun - ior High. Well, her daugh - ter came home one af - ter - noon and did - n't e - ven stop to play. She said, "Mom, I got _ a note here from the Har - per Val - ley P. T. A."

2. The note said, Mrs. Johnson, you're wearing your dresses way too high—
It's reported you've been drinking and a-runnin' 'round with men and going wild.
We don't believe you ought to be a-bringing up your little girl this way -
It was signed by the secretary, Harper Valley P.T.A.

3. Well, it happened that the P.T.A. was gonna meet that very afternoon—
They were sure surprised when Mrs. Johnson wore her mini-skirt into the room.
As she walked up to the blackboard, I still recall the words she had to say.
She said, "I'd like to address this meeting of the Harper Valley P.T.A."
4. Well, there's Bobby Taylor sittin' there and seven times he's asked me for a date.
Mrs. Taylor sure seems to use a lot of ice whenever he's away.
And Mr. Baker, can you tell us why your secretary had to leave this town?
And shouldn't widow Jones be told to keep her window shades all pulled completely down?

5. Well, Mr. Harper couldn't be here 'cause he stayed too long at Kelly's bar again.
And if you smell Shirley Thompson's breath, you'll find she's had a little nip of gin.
Then you have the nerve to tell me you think that as a mother I'm not fit.
Well, this is just a little Peyton Place and you're all Harper Valley hypocrites.
No, I wouldn't put you on, because it really did, it happened just this way,
The day my mama socked it to the Harper Valley P.T.A.

Wake up, Mag-gie, I think I got some-thing to say to you: It's late Sep-tem-ber and I real-ly should be back at school.

I know I keep you a-mused, but I feel I'm be-ing used, Oh, Mag-gie, I could-n't have tried an-y more.

You lured me a-way from home, just to save you from be-ing a-lone. You stole my heart and that's what real-ly hurts.

The morn-ing sun, when it's in your face, real-ly shows your age, But that don't wor-ry me none in my eyes you're ev-ry-thing.

I laughed at all of your jokes, my love you did-n't need to coax. Oh, Mag-gie, I could-n't have tried an-y more.

2. But all at once it happened.

Well, the prettiest in the world,
"Please wont-cha come over and talk to me, and be my girl,"
I said, "Wont-cha come over and talk to me and be my girl,"
Please wont-cha come over and talk to me, and be my girl."

3. She said that she was sorry,

That I was a little bit late,

She would wait and wait and wait and wait for her steady date,
She would wait and wait and wait and wait, for her steady date.

4. How my poor heart was broken,

All my life where had she been?
But I'll try over and over and over and over again,
I'll try over and over and over and over again,
I will try over and over and over and over again.

NARRATION

Say, man; Don't walk ahead of that woman like she don't belong to you. Just 'cause her got them little skinny legs. You know that ain't no way to do. You didn't act like that when you had it at home behind closed doors. All right. Now you act like you ashamed of that woman. Don't even want nobody to know she's yours. That's all right. You just walk on, baby, and don't you worry about a doggone thing at all, because there's some man, somewhere who'll take you, baby, skinny legs and all.

Show you what I'm talkin' about; listen to me. Now, who'll take the woman with the skinny legs? You stand right there, baby. I'm gonna give you away in a minute. Come on somebody, please take the woman with the skinny legs. Now, you all know the lady with the skinny legs has got to have somebody too, now. Will somebody please take the lady with the skinny legs, please?

Hey, Joe! (ans.) Yeah, Bobby. Why don't you take her? (ans.) Shut up fool. I don't want no woman with no skinny legs. Look here. I thought about giving this woman to Clyde. But, no, 'cause I know the kind of woman Clyde likes. So, Leroy'll take her. Say, Leroy, you got her.

Say, Miss lady. Now, why you wanna act like that man ain't yours? Just 'cause he's walkin' with you with them raggedy clothes. The man just forgot to get his suit out of the cleaners, that's all.

All right, all right. You act like that man don't belong to you. Go on over there, and kiss and hold his hand. Say you ain't gonna do what? That's all right. You just walk on, Mister, and don't you worry about a doggone thing at all, 'cause there's some woman, somewhere, who'll take you, Mister, raggedy clothes and all. Just keep on walkin'. Don't be ashamed of what you got. . . (I'm still trying to get rid of the lady with the skinny legs.)
